Waterfront Collection 1 wins FIABCI Singapore Property Awards 2014 recognition

The joint development by Far East Organization and Frasers Centrepoint Limited will be participating in the international FIABCI Prix d'Excellence Awards 2015

Singapore, 13 August 2014 – Jointly developed by Far East Organization (“远东机构”) and Frasers Centrepoint Limited (“星狮地产”), Waterfront Collection 1 has been awarded the FIABCI Singapore Property Awards in the Residential (High Rise) Category this year. Comprising of two residential projects - Waterfront Waves (“水滨苑”) and Waterfront Key (“水滨丽苑”) - Waterfront Collection 1 will qualify to participate in the international design and architecture competition, FIABCI Prix d'Excellence Awards 2015.

Waterfront Collection 1 – Waterfront Waves and Waterfront Key

The Waterfront Collection is an integrated set of four condominiums located opposite the tranquil Bedok Reservoir. Situated close to the edge of the reservoir, Waterfront Collection 1, consisting of the 405-unit Waterfront Waves and the 437-unit Waterfront Key, are the first two projects to be completed.

With the majority of both Waterfront Waves and Waterfront Key units commanding scenic views of the reservoir, around 80 percent of the units from both projects overlook a water feature, be it the reservoir or one of the many pools scattered across the estates.

Taking inspiration from the lush greenery surrounding the development, eco-friendly elements were infused into the architectural design of the estate. In fact, Waterfront Collection 1 has its own mini reservoir in the form of an EcoPond, which helps recycle rainwater for the irrigation of plants. The healthy pond ecosystem offers a unique outdoor classroom for residents to discover a rich diversity of aquatic plants and animals.

In addition, the four developments within the Waterfront Collection have been designed with an environmental deck at the same level despite the existing sloping terrain. This provided residents with a seamless sweeping landscape across all four developments.

The FIABCI Singapore Property Award recognises outstanding real estate projects for their contribution to the built environment and community, as well as excellence in design, aesthetics, and functionality. There are a total of 14 award categories and the panel of judges include distinguished local and international real-estate experts and professionals. The awards will be presented at the FIABCI Prix d'Excellence Awards 2014 and Singapore Property Awards 2014 Dinner held this evening at PARKROYAL on Pickering.
